

Norfolk Island Deaths

1st Settlement 1788 to 1814

There are over 260 deaths during the first settlement of Norfolk Island. This CDrom resource features a comprehensive death and burial list with complete details on each person and their families.

Researched by Historian Cathy Dunn also includes some shipping records and photos of surviving headstones, references to all primary records.

Example of listing:

WRAY, Harriet: Died 3 December 1807

Convict Royal Admiral 1792, aged 17 years.

Crime: Highway Robbery.

Tried: First Middlesex Jury, 28 March 1792.

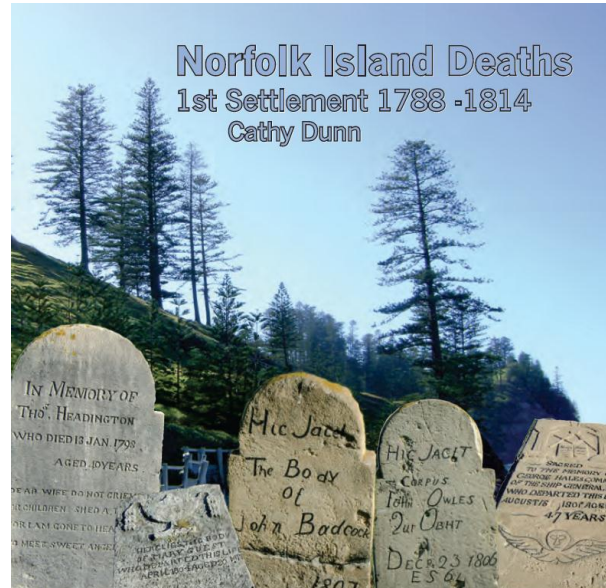

Sentence: 7 years transportation. Harriett was transfer to the Royal Admiral from Newgate.

Harriett was living on Norfolk Island by June 1801, as she was a witness to the marriage of William Hutchinson (Convict Hillsborough 1799) and Mary

Cooper alias Chapman, (Convict Britannia 1798) on 26 June 1801 Norfolk Island, with her name recorded as

Harriet Ray. 1802: Women convict departed Norfolk Island 2 April 1802, she returned to Norfolk on 24 July 1802 and she was re-victualled as a free woman, sentence expired. However in the 1805 Muster, Harriet is listed as a Female convict on stores.

Norfolk Island Deaths: 1st Settlement 1788 to 1814

ISBN: 978-0-9805255-2-6

Cost: $37.00 (includes postage)

Name:

Delivery Address:

Return order form with payment to Cathy Dunn
PO Box 52 Milton NSW 2538